NEW BRUNSWICK CHAPBOOK SERIES - VOLUME FIVE

THE VARYING HARE by TAMMY ARMSTRONG

Great Blue Heron

Weather never completes its shape for wading birds: the cant and hydraulic the scull through salt marsh murk long thoughts of themselves struck on their own reflections like an early crush in love with a '78 Honda kicking it three times to a shuddering start near midnight, burning oil, leaving the throttle wide for all the neighbours in bed, awake now.

He ties back his hair, a Player's Light behind his ear headphones, cd player and then a nod. I'm out like the heron lifting off the marsh: all rattling fender and welded chrome counter-balancing at the corner, no signal just opening up and out and away.
